1. Several companies of Polish troops from Oswiecim (L 51/Y 74) were seen arriving daily up to early December 1949, for work in the Jawiczowice mine. About 200 troops worked in the day shift, about 150 in the evening shift, and about 100 in the night shift.
2. The troops were stationed in the former Oswiecim concentration camp. Most of them spoke German. Some soldiers said that each company was equipped only with about 30 carbines.
